

Sénégal 50

Projects

Industrialization

Sector

Senegal offers many opportunities, particularly in agro-industry, natural resource processing, manufacturing, construction, energy and chemistry. The country has abundant natural resources and a strategic geographical position, close to major global hubs. Senegal wants to position itself as a major regional industrial hub and new investment promotion strategies have been implemented, with the establishment of several Special Economic Zones with tax incentives and tailor-made business facilitation services .

